

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

CORRESPONDENCE

FROM THE REV. DR. MALCOM, PRESIDENT OF GEORGETOWN COLLEGE, KY.

GEORGETOWN, March 14th, 1844.

DEAR BROTHER,—Please accept, on behalf of the College, our thanks for the valuable works on peace presented to our library. Thank God, the current of feeling among our 120 students is for peace. Many of them are avowed and influential disciples of the doctrine of your Society. I have lectured before them on the subject, in form, more than once, and in the recitation room, take care to imbue the Seniors with our tenets. I am now preparing a series of lectures (four), which I intend to deliver before students and town folks, in the meeting-house. I have two copies of Dymond in constant circulation. Nothing but the overpowering press of engagements in our new and rising College, in which I have many duties to perform beside those of President, has hindered me from writing for the Advocate,—a delightful and very ably conducted work. As the vacation here occurs while the College at Danville is in session, I think of going there and delivering my course of lectures, next summer.

* * * Yours, with affectionate respect, HOWARD MALCOM.

LONDON PEACE SOCIETY,
19 New Broad Street, Feb. 29, 1844. }

MY DEAR FRIEND,—* * * Our last Herald will have informed you of our attempt to act upon the mind of London; the forth-coming number will report further progress. The meetings and lectures have been continued, and with considerable encouragement.

Immediately upon the opening of the present session of Parliament, our Committee met, and agreed upon a memorial to Her Majesty's Government, against the increase of our naval and military establishments, hinted at in the speech from the throne. Since that, we have presented a petition to the House of Commons to the same effect, and have urged all our friends to adopt a similar course. The Herald for April will give you particulars.—We have our eye upon the Tahitian business, and also the affray in New Zealand. * * *

Mr. Rigaud sailed yesterday for the continent. He has proceeded direct to Brussels, and will make a tour in Holland, to try the ground. He has many letters of introduction, kindly furnished by various friends. Mr. R. will reach Paris, so as to be present at the annual meeting of the Christian Morals Society, and will then go on to Geneva.

I hope you will make a vigorous effort to obtain all the information which can be had on your side the Atlantic, of cases referred to arbitration since the peace of 1815, and of the expense of such reference, wherever this can be ascertained. Mr. Rigaud will endeavor to obtain such information upon the continent. * * *

I ought to have added above, that Mr. Rigaud has taken with him a translation of the resolutions adopted at the Convention, into the French language, which he will take every opportunity to circulate upon the continent.

We are, like yourselves, greatly deficient in that certain article, without which even peace operations cannot be sustained,—MONEY. We have made, as our Herald would show, a strong appeal about it, and have had some kind, very kind, responses to that appeal. We hope for better days.

With every sentiment of personal and Christian esteem, and earnest prayer for your success in all your labors, I remain

Yours truly,
JOHN JEFFERSON, Sec'y.

TERMS.—Single copies, 50 cents a year—5 copies to one address, $2; 15 copies, $5; 40 copies, $10; 100 copies, $20. At the same rate, any number for general or gratuitous distribution; cheaper even than tracts. Any person sending $1, for two new subscribers, shall receive a copy gratis, for the year. ~~Always pay in advance, without expense to us.~~
 Every minister taking up a collection for the cause, is entitled to the ADVOCATE.
 Communications, post paid, to GEO. C. BECKWITH, Cor. Secretary, or J. P. BLANCHARD, Treasurer, No. 13 Tremont Row, Boston.
 Money for the Advocate, and all orders respecting it, can be sent free of expense by any post master. We hope our friends will remember this.

AGENTS.

Boston, Joshua P. BLANCHARD.	Middletown, Ct., EDWARD HUNT.
Portland, Me., WILLIAM HYDE.	Philadelphia, A. FLINT, 13 N. Seventh St.
New Bedford, Mass., NATH. HATHAWAY.	Newburyport, Mass., CHARLES WHIPPLE.
Fair Haven, Mass., CHARLES DREW.	New Ipswich, N. H., REV. SAMUEL LEE.
Salem, Mass., HENRY WHIPPLE.	Newport, N. H., REV. JOHN WOODS.
Farmington, Ct., EDWARD HOOKER.	Malone, N. Y., S. C. WEAD.

DEPOSITORY, 13 TREMONT ROW, BOSTON.—J. P. BLANCHARD, TREASURER.

HALF SHEET. POSTAGE, 100 miles,  $\frac{1}{4}$  ct; over 100 miles,  $1\frac{1}{2}$  ct.